

Dacheng and Dentons merge into the world's biggest law firm

Description

Today, Dacheng Law Offices and Dentons formalize their marriage resulting in the world's biggest law firm.

The Firm will be known as "Dentons" in English and all other languages, except for Chinese. In Chinese, the Firm will be known as "??;" the Firm's logo unites the two in a design that features both as "??Dentons."

A nice note: the pronunciation of the Chinese words "??" and that of the English name "Dentons" sound very much the same, leaving no need to scratch for a good translation for each other.

With approximately 6,600 lawyers serving more than 50 countries around the world, the new firm offers clients the benefit of quality experience in and of the communities in which they want to do business or resolve a dispute — from Canada and the United States, across Europe, the United Kingdom, the Middle East and Africa, and throughout the Asia Pacific region.
