

Notice About Administration of Foreign Expert Certificate Issued by State Administration of Foreign Affairs

Description

[Jaosn's Comments: I quote this article from the official website of SAFEA. SAFEA is one of my concern because every time a foreign investor intending to set up a language training school in China always brings up this issue. News had it also that many many English training schools or centres here in Shanghai failed to obtain proper employment permits/licenses, in particular, the foreign expert certificate, for their foreign teachers. Under current rules, foreigners working as English teachers are deemed as "foreign experts" and therefore need to apply for this foreign expert certificate. This seems and indeed is ridiculous and stupid practice. But it happens here in this country. To employ foreign experts, the school, centre or company shall first apply for a qualification certificate certifying that this entity is now qualified to hire foreign experts. The problem is that except for those Sino-foreign joint venture schools, other training entities shall only apply for this qualification certificate after their businesses run for more than one (1) year. A critical question arises before foreign investors, within this one (1) year, they cannot employ foreign teachers or have to do it illegally. ]
